

This is not a dream.

Or science fiction.

This is not a debate about old ideas.

It's a promise.

To ourselves and to our future.

Let's keep it.

Earthjustice is using the courts to stop the construction of dirty coal plants and encourage carbon-free energy. It's just one of the ways we're promoting a clean energy future, safeguarding health, and preserving our natural heritage. Join us at earthjustice.org.

EARTHJUSTICE
